

Partner School Application 2023

Please complete and send all four application components, along with a signed copy of this application document (see signature lines below), to brittany@turnaroundartsca.org by Monday, January 30, 2023 at 5pm PT.

Part I: School Profile

The School Profile form describes your student population and staffing levels. This piece may be completed by the principal, school data manager, or administrative assistant. In order to complete the form, please click on the link, and then download a copy.

Part II: Application Questions

Please have the school principal respond to the 5 open-ended questions in this document. There are no word limits, and most questions can probably be answered in anywhere from 75-200 words.

Part III: School District Letter of Commitment

Confirm that the district will support the leadership at the school to successfully guide and implement the program through a letter of commitment, co-signed by the superintendent of your school district & your direct supervisor. It should explain specifically:

- How does Turnaround Arts: California fit with the district's current priorities and goals?
- How will the district support the school's Turnaround Arts: California partnership?
Support may include resources, flexibility in content for professional development time, etc.

Part IV: Eligibility Verification & Signatures

- The school serves elementary and/or middle school students.
- Around 75% or more of the school's student population is eligible for free or reduced price lunch.
- The school will provide at least one full-time, certified arts teacher for every 300 students, providing weekly instruction (45 minutes minimum) to every student in the school.
- The school commits to making it possible for the principal and teacher leaders to participate in 3 Turnaround Arts: California's convenings across the year.
- The school commits to creating a Strategic Arts Plan which sets target outcomes for the use of the arts to impact student and family engagement, school culture, and shared leadership.
- The school commits to convene an Arts Leadership Team 1-2x monthly for 2 hours total.
- The school agrees to a minimum three-year commitment.

Your signatures below confirm that the above statements are true about your eligibility and commitment to be brought on as a Turnaround Arts: California school.
